This is a non-final office action for application number 09/955,467, Bracket Assembly Lock, filed on September 17, 2001.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the primary reasons for the allowance the claims in this application are the limitations of a lock for mounting an angle bracket on an upright, the lock including a pair of side members, inner and outer jaws coupled to the side members, a fulcrum bar, and at least one of jaws comprising a substantially flat, toothless contact surface which is adapted to contact a substantially planar longitudinal surface of the upright, at least one of the jaws being capable of pivoting relative to the side members and the angle bracket, included in independent claim 1 and in combination with the other elements recited in the claim; and the combination of an upright having a plurality of surface irregularities and a lock, the lock having a pair of side members, inner and outer jaws, a fulcrum bar, and at least one of the jaws having a contact surface which includes a plurality of surface irregularities being sized and shaped to matingly engage with the plurality of surface irregularities on the upright, and at least one jaw being capable of pivoting relative to the side members and the angle bracket, included in independent claim 5 and in combination with the other elements recited in the claim. These combinations of elements are not found in the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
